

Pull too

1899 L.L. Nunn, recently moved to Provo, develops a power station in Provo Canyon that generates and transmits electricity to Mercur, a mining community 32 miles away. It is the longest transmission of alternating current to date in the country.

History L L Derrnan Power Plant at Upper Falls